

FATHERHOOD Ephesians 6:4 | Pastor Chris Martin February 26, 2017

If you are in a Life Group, take some time to answer these questions before your group meets:

EPHESIANS 6:4

What is one trait you see in yourself that you would not want passed on to your children? How can you begin working towards sanctification in that area?

If fathers especially need to hear these instructions, in what areas do you think mothers might need specific encouragement or accountability in the way they relate to their children?

Is there a bit of Godly wisdom your parents told you growing up that really stuck with you? Or, if you were not raised in a Christian home, what bit of Godly wisdom do you wish you had learned at an early age?

Describe a time when you were disciplined and it turned out for your best, or a time when a parent used discipline poorly. What effect did it have on you?

How much does parenting contribute to the person a child will become? Can a child who was parented very well still have negative behaviors or attributes?

In what ways can a wife support, encourage, or equip her husband to live out this verse? What about grandparents, singles, or couples without children?
