

1. Thinking back on this week's sermon, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. When verse 1 says that Jesus, "having loved His own...", what actions come to mind as exemplifying this love?
3. Can the devil cause a person to do evil things, such as betrayal (verse 2), in a way that removes the individual's choice to make those actions? Why or why not?
4. How do you typically respond when someone offers to serve you? What lessons do you find in this passage about receiving gifts from others?
5. How is biblical humility similar or different than the way it is viewed in today's culture? See Philippians 2:1-8 for more details.
6. Jesus knew that one of His disciples would betray Him, but still washed their feet. As we seek to do the same, how do we know where service ends and enablement begins?
7. What is one lesson you would draw from Jesus' act of service in this passage that is unique to someone in a leadership role? What is a lesson for one who is in a subservient role?
8. Verse 17 says, "If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them." Where do you see strengths or weaknesses in the way Valley Bible learns and acts out biblical truth?
9. List several specific things you could do to serve those in your spheres of influence this week.

NICS CONFERENCE

VBC once again is thankful to welcome Dr. Evan Burns as he teaches a weekend full of timely and biblical truth. The winds of modern challenges blowing across the landscape and the waves of historical movements still crashing on the beaches of our theology are critical to understand if we are to prevent the erosion of Gospel truth. This will be a weekend to inform, encourage, and motivate our church as we seek to honor God and His Word in shifty times. Visit spokanevbc.org/events for more info and to register.

SAFETY TEAM

Safety Team: A ministry dedicated to facilitating a safe worship environment and experience. The safety team is on a rotating schedule of Sunday morning service, along with occasional special events.
