

THE DYSTOPIAN DISTORTION OF GOD'S CREATION

Ben Orchard / October 30, 2022

The Distortion of _____ and _____

The Distortion of _____

The _____ and the _____

THE DYSTOPIAN DISTORTION OF GOD'S CREATION

Ben Orchard / October 30, 2022

The Distortion of _____ and _____

The Distortion of _____

The _____ and the _____

Week of October 30, 2022

1. Thinking back on this week's sermon, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Paul references man and woman as part of the created order (vs 9). How would you respond to someone who claimed that the creation account (Gen 1:26-27, Gen 2:18-24) was specific to one man (Adam) and one woman (Eve), and not meant to be an exhaustive or exclusive list of the full spectrum of human creation?
3. Many Christian transgendered persons claim that their desire is to live consistently with the way God created them. Is it possible that God created someone transgendered? Why, or why not?
4. For a believer where ought to be the focal point of our identity? How does that differ from our culture, practically?
5. As we engage with a world that supports homosexual and transgender lifestyles, when does our loving engagement with those individuals or ideas become unbiblical affirmation?
6. When can standing up for a biblical view of gender roles become bullying?
7. How can we be involved in our local community to defend and promote biblical values surrounding gender, identity, and marriage?
8. How, specifically, can we proactively raise the next generation (kids, grandkids, students, etc.) to value and embody biblical principles of masculinity and femininity?
9. If someone you loved came to you to talk about their struggles surrounding gender identity or homosexual attraction where could you go for more information as you seek to help them?

Week of October 30, 2022

1. Thinking back on this week's sermon, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Paul references man and woman as part of the created order (vs 9). How would you respond to someone who claimed that the creation account (Gen 1:26-27, Gen 2:18-24) was specific to one man (Adam) and one woman (Eve), and not meant to be an exhaustive or exclusive list of the full spectrum of human creation?
3. Many Christian transgendered persons claim that their desire is to live consistently with the way God created them. Is it possible that God created someone transgendered? Why, or why not?
4. For a believer where ought to be the focal point of our identity? How does that differ from our culture, practically?
5. As we engage with a world that supports homosexual and transgender lifestyles, when does our loving engagement with those individuals or ideas become unbiblical affirmation?
6. When can standing up for a biblical view of gender roles become bullying?
7. How can we be involved in our local community to defend and promote biblical values surrounding gender, identity, and marriage?
8. How, specifically, can we proactively raise the next generation (kids, grandkids, students, etc.) to value and embody biblical principles of masculinity and femininity?
9. If someone you loved came to you to talk about their struggles surrounding gender identity or homosexual attraction where could you go for more information as you seek to help them?