1. Thinking back on this week's sermon, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. As we approach Paul's extended teaching on the topic of spiritual gifts, outline your basic understanding of the topic, along with any questions you have.
3. Would you call yourself a cessationist, a charismatic, or something in between? Why?
4. Is doctrine regarding the nature and extent of spiritual gifts one that the Church should rightly divide over, or can people of strongly differing beliefs on the topic worship together without reservation? What makes you give that answer?
5. A theme in this letter is unity in the church. How have you seen the teaching or practice of spiritual gifts either bring the church together or divide it?
6. Paul says in verse 1 that he does not want the church at Corinth to be unaware of this teaching. Are there areas of teaching within the Christian faith that you believe are un-taught, or under-taught in today's Church?
7. Who is doing the leading in verse 2?
8. What observations about the Trinity can you make from verse 3?
9. Through the power of the Holy Spirit a believer can say "Jesus is Lord" (vs. 3). What are the implications for a person's life when they serve a lord?
