

1. Thinking back on this week's sermon, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. How much should what is "unbecoming" (vs 5) be culturally defined?
3. What are we to do when our culture doesn't agree about what is unbecoming? I.e. when to wear a hat, or what pronouns to use?
4. How should a believer handle an issue that they are convicted is wrong despite social norms of what is becoming (i.e. slavery, student loans, police corruption)? Is there ever a place for a Christian protester or revolutionary?
5. Did Christ ever act in an unbecoming way? Would the religious leaders of His time have said so?
6. Describe when it is selfless to be selfish, if ever.
7. Name a few things sure to "provoke" you, as well as a more sanctified alternative response.
8. How would you reply to someone who asked, "Is it true that Christians are supposed to forgive and forget?"
9. Where do you see the Church today doing well at living out the love described in this verse? Where does it need to grow?
