1. Thinking back on this week's sermon, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. Paul didn't make up his message, but rather he passed on what he had himself received (vs 3). What is the difference (if any) between the roles of preacher and evangelist today?
3. What is the result of Christ's death for our sins on the life of a believer (vs 3)? Is the answer different for a non-believer?
4. How would you define sin and its effects to someone who had never heard of it before?
5. Find and write down at least two Old Testament references to Christ's death, burial, and resurrection (vs 3-4). Share an observation about them with your group.
6. What biblical or extra-biblical evidence would you give to someone who said that Christ's resurrection (vs 4) is a parable or story rather than an actual historical event?
7. Why do you think God didn't allow anyone to see the moment of Christ's resurrection – instead appearing to many after having been resurrected (vs 5-8)?
8. What effect does the extent of our sins (vs 9) or our labors for Christ (vs 10) have in the everyday application the gospel to our lives?
9. When was the last time you shared the gospel with someone? What was the result?
