1. Thinking back on this week's sermon, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?
2. What value is there in righteous rebuking and appealing (vs 1) within the family of God?
3. What does the family relationship within a church look like if the instructions of this passage are routinely not followed?
4. Is the method of rebuking and appealing (vs 1) more or less important than the outcome of the interaction? Why?
5. If you are convicted that you need to rebuke or appeal to a member of the family of God, what biblical principles beyond what is taught in this passage ought to guide you in doing so? Use verses like Matthew 7:1-5, 18:15-17, Ephesians 4:29 and 32, and Col. 3:13 for more information.
6. Are there different principles for engaging with a non-believer who is in sin?
7. Describe other ways our culture promotes dealing with those under authority.
8. What practical steps can young ministers take to maintain purity (vs 2) in their relationships with the young women under their care? What about Christians in general?
9. How might an unhealthy family of origin affect the way a person interacts with their religious family?
