We Persevere by What We _____ (19-21)

1. Thinking back on this week's message, was there anything you heard for the first time or that caught your attention, challenged, or confused you?

2. Verses 19-22 sum up the basis on which we are able to have confidence in our faith. Rewrite this in your own words – how can we know we are seen as righteous before God if we are in Christ? Check back over the chapter summaries you've written thus far to help with your answer!

3. What does it mean practically to "hold fast the confession of our hope" (verse 23)? What does that look like, and how can we know if we're doing it?

4. Verse 24 calls us to "stimulate" one another to love and good deeds. What ought this to look like? How can we do this without falling into a legalistic or guilt-based approach to good works?

5. Verse 25 calls us to not forsake assembling together. Does this mean believers are in sin if they ever miss Sunday worship? Why or why not? Defend your answer with scripture!

6. At the end of verse 25, the author mentions "the day drawing near." What does this mean, and why should it motivate us to obey these commands?

7. We should not walk away from a study of any passage of Scripture without it impacting our lives in some way. What is one way your thinking and/or actions have changed as a result of studying this passage?
